

Yael Man-Shahar

The Team @ ClearWater

Director -
Innovation

Yael Man-Shahar (MA, BA) is a promising OD consultant.

Her background is in customer service and she specialise in large project management. She approaches any project and assignment heads-on with full Power, working hard, live the project 24/7, and becomes part of the organisation's DNA.

As a high level systemic thinker, she offers radical solutions that 'break the mould' and help clients see things from a different perspective

Professional Expertise

Prior to becoming an OD Consultant, Yael has worked across a wide range of industry sectors, from air travel, security, entertainment, and film industry. She provided a variety of HR services to include: Psychological profiling, recruitment, talent identification and management, management development, performance management, executive coaching, and career guidance

Career History:

2011-13 Weizmann Institute of Science

- ❖ Coordinator and consultant for students

2006-11 EL AL Israel Airlines

- ❖ Amsterdam Area, Netherlands, El Al security in Toronto & Amsterdam (2 years),
- ❖ Air hostess - long haul / business class (3 years)

Education:

MA Organisational Development and Consultancy – University College of Emek Yezreel
BA Psychology – Open University (Israel)